

Chelsea C. Williams

Chelsea is a thoughtful, energetic workplace & career strategist with a skill and passion in facilitating conscious conversations that propel personal & organizational action!

BIOGRAPHY

Chelsea C. Williams is deeply passionate about a more equitable & inclusive workplace. As a Workplace Strategist, International Speaker, & the Founder & CEO of College Code, she supports national organizations in centering DE&I as a forethought, rather than an afterthought.

Chelsea is a highly sought advisor to global organizations on talent attraction, development, and retention, with a speciality in developing people managers and engaging early stage professionals. She has spoken at Moodys, Hermès, The Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM), The National Association of Colleges & Employers (NACE), and Big Brothers Big Sisters of NYC.

Prior to starting her business, Chelsea spent a decade on Wall Street managing & leading human capital across the United States, Europe, and Asia.

Chelsea obtained her BA in Economics from Spelman College on full scholarship. She currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia.
